

Public Use of the State Library Collection and Building

OUR VISION: The South Carolina State Library is a national model for innovation, collaboration, leadership and effectiveness. It is the keystone in South Carolina's intellectual landscape.

OUR MISSION: We optimize South Carolina's investment in library and information services. (Approved January 2008)

In order to fulfill its mission and vision, to provide a return on public investment, and to promote the South Carolina State Library to citizens, the State Library's collection and facilities are to be accessible to all citizens.

Citizens may checkout circulating materials, request interlibrary loans, use library computers, avail themselves of reference services, and any other services deemed appropriate by the State Library Director.

Citizen use of the library facilities and collection are subject to the existing Library Use Policy and all rules and regulations established by the director or his designee.

Adopted by South Carolina State Library Board, May 26, 2010
